Let us help you get your kids moving!

MILITARY YOUTH ON THE MOVE

is an easy to use, informative website designed with your children in mind!

Easy to use

Military Youth on the Move is designed for three target audiences: kids, preteens and teens. Your children simply click on their age group and begin searching through topics related to relocation, deployment and much more!

Informative

Military Youth on the Move provides a safe place for your children to get information and advice on a variety of topics.

The site offers many great features:

- 🕒 Age-specific advice on topics such as changing schools and making new friends
- 🕒 Answers to common questions such as "How do I say goodbye?" or "What can I expect in middle school?"
- 🕒 Helpful links to other websites designed for youth such as StopBullying.gov, LetsMove.gov and more
- 🕒 Up-to-date information about social networking and other topics your children can relate to
- 🕒 Bright colors, photographs and quotes from military youth to make the site friendly and engaging

Designed for your children

The site is designed for your children, so it is filled with short articles, easy to follow tips and helpful links for all age groups:

- 🕒 Kids and preteens can read information about bullying, divorce and how to start over at a new school.
- 🕒 Teens can find topics tailored to their needs such as preparing for life after high school, opening a bank account and writing a resume.

Looking for a way to help your children beat the moving blues?

Being a teenager is hard. Period.

"Having to move every three years only makes it that much harder. It's like being confused all the time. One day, I just decided to give up the tough guy act and told my mom how scared I was really feeling about another move. I guess since then, talking with my parents has helped me with the problems I had with our move here."

~Tyler, age 17
